What is the eduroam wireless network?

Tell Me

1. eduroam (education roaming) is the primary wireless network for campus that offers secure, world-wide, roaming access developed for the international research and education community.
2. eduroam allows students, researchers, and staff from participating institutions to obtain Internet connectivity across campus and when visiting other participating institutions by simply opening their laptop.
3. UNC Charlotte is an eduroam institution and this network is available across campus.
4. More details about eduroam are available here.

Related FAQs

- How do I access the wireless network (WiFi) on campus?
- Why am I getting a connection error for eduroam wireless on my Windows 10 computer?
- What should I do if I'm having trouble connecting to eduroam?
- What other campuses have the eduroam wireless network available?
- What is the eduroam wireless network?