How do faculty access Moodle and Mahara e-portfolio after May 15, 2017?

Tell Me

Moodle courses are read-only after May 15, 2017. You can access Moodle via my.uncc.edu to see your courses including assignments, forum posts, quiz submissions, and grades. You can also access and use Mahara e-portfolios, including creating new portfolio content.

1. Access the my.uncc.edu site and log in
2. If necessary, click the Faculty link
3. In the Teaching column, click the Moodle (read-only access) link. The Moodle login page is displayed
4. Enter your NinerNET credentials and click Log in
5. To access Mahara, on the left side of the page, click the Mahara @ UNC Charlotte link
Related FAQs

- How do faculty access Moodle and Mahara e-portfolio after May 15, 2017?
- How do students access Moodle and Mahara e-portfolio after May 15, 2017?
- How do I handle grade disputes in my Moodle course after May 15, 2017?
- How do I migrate Moodle content into Canvas?
- How can I access previous semester Moodle courses in Canvas?