What happens when I simulate taking a survey and go back to fill in missing information but the other responses are gone?

Tell Me

1. When a respondent takes an actual survey, their responses will be preserved. Since no answers are actually recorded when you view the survey simulation, the system can't fill in the questions that are required to answer.

Related FAQs

- Why won't my username and password work for SurveyShare?
- Where is my SurveyShare data stored?
- What survey options are available on campus?
- What is SurveyShare?
- What happens when I simulate taking a survey and go back to fill in missing information but the other responses are gone?