Is there an IT Security Checklist for systems and server administrators?

Tell Me

1. The Information Security Checklist for Campus Systems is a starting point to review information security related to the systems and services owned by a unit and/or college.
2. The Information Security Checklist for Externally Hosted Systems is a starting point to review information security related to systems and services hosted by a third party on an external network.

Related FAQs

- How can I confirm an internal email (@uncc.edu) from a faculty or staff member is a legitimate address?
- Is there an IT Security Checklist for systems and server administrators?
- What is the process for reporting missing or stolen university owned computer equipment?
- Who are the Data Security Officer and Information Security Liaison for my area?
- What is the Security Awareness Training and where can I complete it?